

The story of Umm Aymān رضوعينا

Story by Yanti Novita
Muraja'ah by Ustadz Abu Salma Muhammad
Translation by Noli
Illustration by Noli

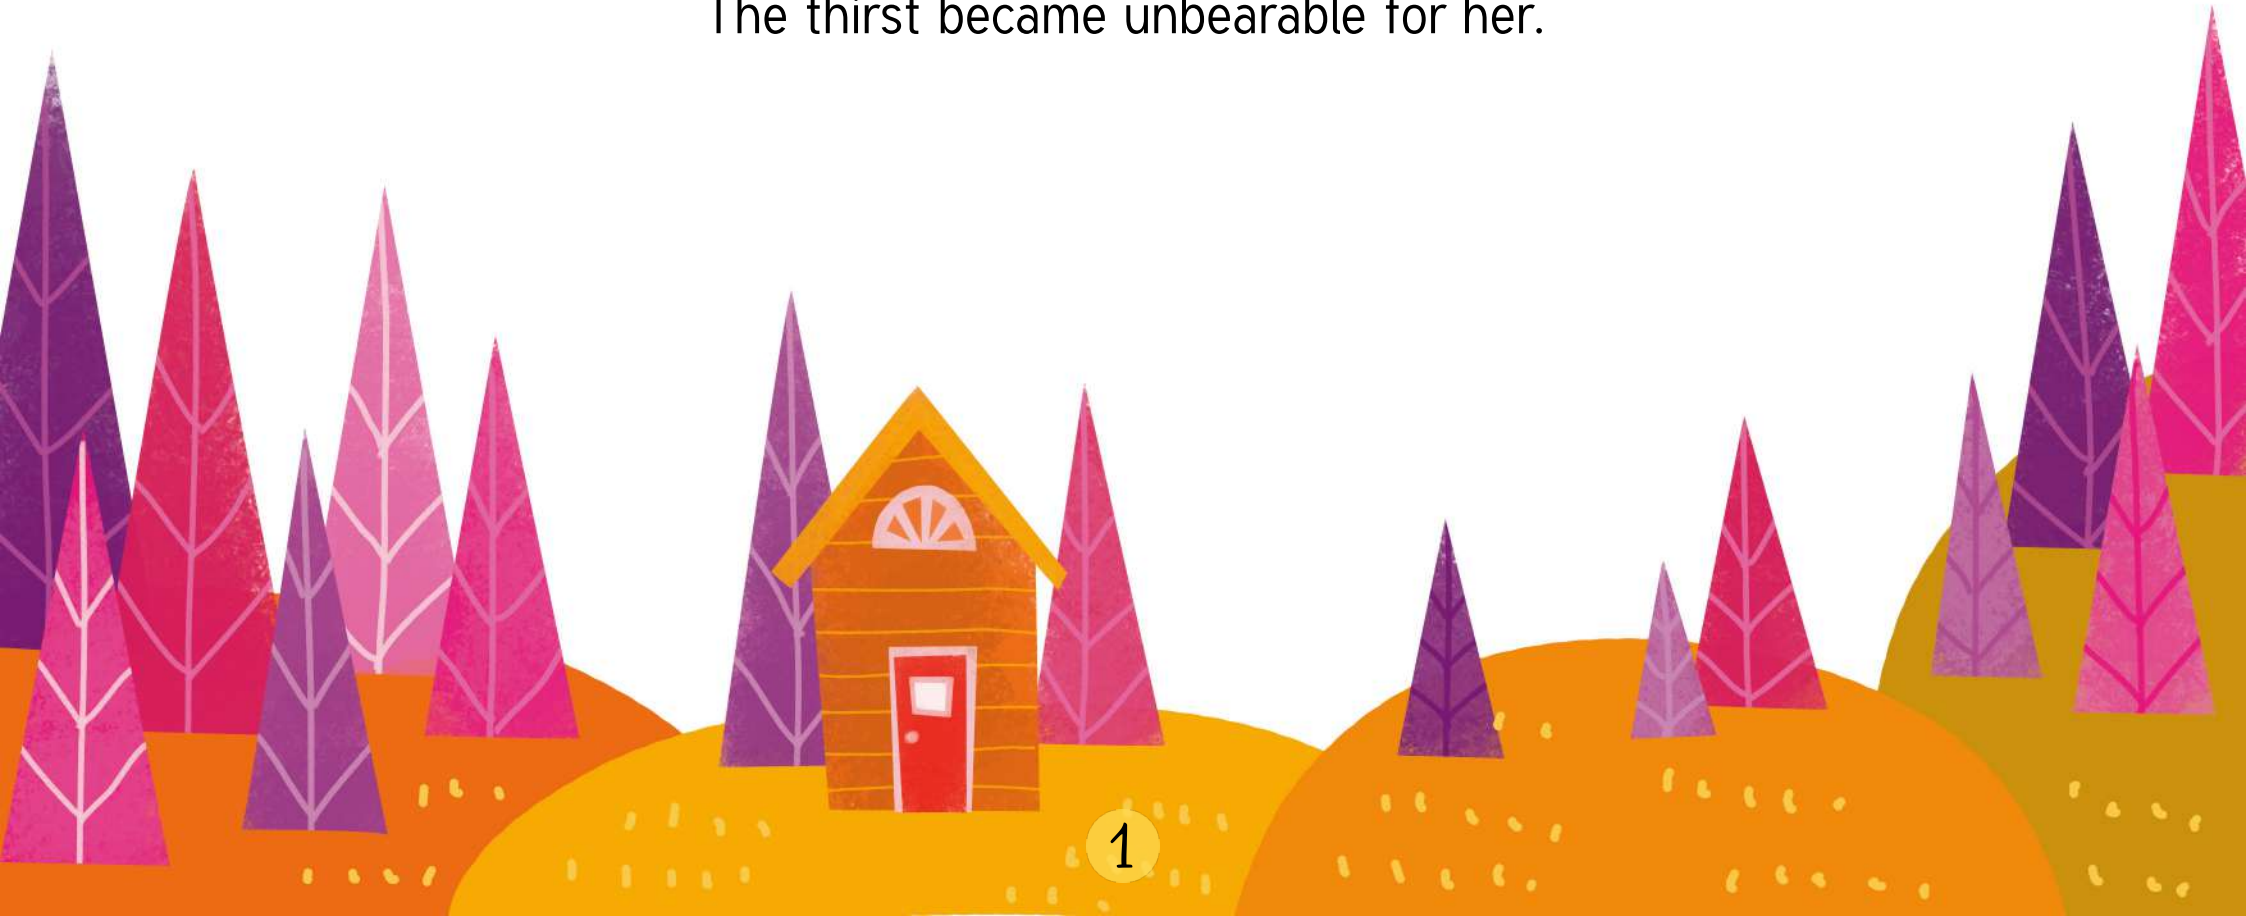

www.muslimkecil.com

 Muslimkecil Page

 muslimkecil.com

One day, a woman was making hijrah to Madinah.
She travelled on foot and has no supplies with her.
She was fasting and it was a scorching day.
The thirst became unbearable for her.

The background of the page is a vibrant, stylized illustration. At the top, there are large, white, scalloped-edged shapes against a blue sky with horizontal stripes. Below this, the landscape features rolling hills in shades of orange and yellow. In the center, there is a small brown house with a red door and a yellow roof. The house is surrounded by several tall, triangular trees in various shades of purple, pink, and red. The overall style is simple and colorful, typical of children's educational materials.

While she was walking, a miraculous incident happened.

She saw a pail filled with water hanging above her.

She drank the water until she was satiated.

After this incident, she would not experience thirst even though she fast on an extremely scorching day.

Who is that lucky woman?

She is Umm Ayman Barakah bint Tha'labah رضي الله عنها.

She is the woman who raised Rasulullah ﷺ after the demise of his mother.

She participated in many battles alongside Rasulullah ﷺ.

She nursed the injured and provided water to the warriors.

Umm Ayman رضي الله عنها was loved and respected by Rasulallah ﷺ .
Rasulallah ﷺ once said, “Umm Ayman is my mother after my (biological) mother.”

